

Bert Swanson Leaves MHS With A Paycheck Quote

I, Bert Swanson, being of superior intellect and outstanding physique, do hereby bequeath to MHS and its remaining student body the following words sung by the one and only Johnny Paycheck: "You can take this job and shove it!! I ain't workin' here no more!!!!"

I, David Fullen bequeath the following: to Steven Floyd, the ability to take a trip without opening his mouth and putting his foot in it. To Kyle Smith, the ability to keep a straight face when he threatens to kick someone. To Brent "Bones" Boren, the ability to pick up women and know what to do, and a new wardrobe that doesn't look like Abdul the tent maker made it. To Kevin King, a girlfriend that can hold her liquor past a beer, and a van with a good clutch. To Mark Cecil, the ability to stay awake in trig, a new hairdo, and a faster car with better rods. To John Schwartz, the city of Houston's east side because it reminds you of Pittsburgh and a chop job to your "Z". To Jack Stone, your own personal copy of the U.S. Constitution. To Patti Smith, another diploma from the Ronco Company. To Jimmy Shock and Tom Poole, the Lone Star brewery, complete with all the long necks you can drink. To Scott Welsh, a decent paint job that I didn't do. To Ricky Money, a car that spends more time on the road than in the garage. To Mark McMouth, I leave Mr. Richmond, and a girlfriend with one face instead of two. To Mr. Schultz (R-Dog), I will swim partly at Waco next year. P.S. Mark McBeath assisted in the drafting of this document.

I, Caren Dobbs, being of big mouth and short body hereby relieve myself of the following: To Kathy Roberts I leave my I.D. so she can get in to Great Gatsby's without any trouble. Also I leave Kathy all our great sayings; right, quite right, Ahhh Freak Out, and how do you spell relief? Buddy or Randy. To Kevin McCarter I leave my swim suit top and may you lock your keys in your car for GOOD! To John Schwartz I leave all the beer cans I emptied in my car this year! To Diana (oompa-loompa) I leave you answers to your problems with Pauline, and a life size blow-up doll of Paul so you won't get so lonely in Colombia this summer. To Ana (oompa-loompa) I leave a straight jacket, a muzzle, and a life size doll of Tommy Norwood so you can get back at him for... To Dianne Shipler I leave James Blinco. (Have Fun). To all the SENIORS I leave the great parties and the memoirs of graduation. To Mr. Mac I leave, and Kathy leaves, but seriously I leave you Kathy, I sure hope you can put up with her again next year like you put up with both of us sneakin' out this year. To MHS good-bye, to MC hello!

I, Shawna Fletcher, of sound mind and body will the following: to Diana Nelson the ability to be a friend and have friends forever and be able to know the difference between the two. To David, I leave all the cigars and pipe tobacco to cause cancer in two days. To Todd M. I leave you Utah, the party, and four freaks and a railroad crossing, it was fun. To Tracy, I leave well enough alone. To Mrs. Sailer, I leave a nose defroster to use when ice forms on her nose from high altitudes and more parties, aren't they fun?? To Hixon and Stone, I leave them something to do instead of stealing hats. To Midland High I leave an AAH-UGH!!!!

I, Diana Nelson, being of sound mind will to Martha Meroney another year of basketball with Mrs. Young, to Mrs. Young another basketball player who will put up with you like I did, to Sylvia Sperry a stilt to hold your nose up in the air, to Tammy Wilson a muzzle for your mouth in bookkeeping, to Kelli Yadon a mesquite repellent, to Shawna Fletcher a more shrilling scream and to all the juniors and sophomores all the good times and memories of MHS that I had.

I, Randy Hodge, being of sound mind (I think) and perfect body bestow to the following: To Dirk Beveridge I will a guitar lesson provided you return my Neil Young tape and Paul McCartney album. To Jason Forman I leave you 6 grams of cocaine, 12 tons of Columbian, a new car, the memories of all the good times, Aviation maps of various parts of the world, so on certain nights you can find the way home. To Kevin Callway I leave many nights of great memories and there will be many more in the future, also I leave the girl of your dreams, even though you have not found her yet. To Jimmy Fitzgerald, I will you a full size mirror, and life size doll of... your self. To Jeff Spangler, I hope you achieve all of your goals in life, I'm sure our paths will cross once we have reached what we want. To Eric Fry I leave a new pair of snow skis. And a free ski lesson from Wayne Wong, To Roy Ranne I leave the memories of all the ski trips that we have skied with each other so, also thanks for teaching me to ski the moguls when we were in Utah. To Jack Hooper I leave all of the fantastic days we spent in Jones' class I think I speak for the both of us when days we spent in Jones' class I think I speak for the both of us when I say it was really a productive class. To Rod Steele I leave you many thanks for everything you've done for me. Of every member in my family including step brothers and sisters you are the closest and best one. Thanks, once again for everything. To Mr. Schultz, and Jackie Lang I would like to thank you for teaching me one of the most important things I've learned all year. I've found when a person puts himself in the public eye somebody will criticize his work. Even if you go out of your way to help these same people which I did for Industrial Arts. And even amongst the criticisms you could not find it in yourselves to say thanks. To Mary Helm thanks for posing with the ticket in your mouth to Ms. Howell I don't want to leave you anything I just wanted to mention your name because it was requested to me. To Milby Hartwell I leave many thanks for being what you are, the memories that we've shared and the good times to come. Also I leave all of my love. To Dana Drury I leave you a great Senior year. And have fun as Editor, Photographer, feature writer and sports writer, you'll end up doing it all if you don't believe me ask Dirk he'll tell you so himself. To Larry Nickel thanks for teaching me how to climb I look forward to many trips to do that this summer. To Lisa Beveridge, I leave you the ability to show Mr. Baker that the conservatives are always right, Also to show Dana that Ted Kennedy is not Presidential material. To Coach Dodd, I'd like to thank you for being a great teacher for whom I hold much respect. I'd like to will you; your very own P-51, P-38, P-39, P-40 and F4u Corsair. I'd also like to Leave you with this thought: To so me flying is just a way of getting from one place to another quickly. But to others it is both a way of life and a continuing source of deep satisfaction. It is these few we are dedicated to for they appreciate it the most and understand it the best. To Millie Howard I'd like to thank you for letting me skip every time Dirk showed up at your class room door. I'd also like to say I really enjoyed being in your class. To Sarah Macina I'd like to thank you for all of the advice you gave. For every bit of it was related to that one person who we discussed so much. Good luck to you in the future. Last and not least to Calvin Baker thanks for being so cooperative and teaching me much valuable information. Good luck in all future activities.

Editor's Note: Thanks for the offer Randy, but I think I'll keep the Neil Young tape and Paul McCartney album and pass on the guitar lesson.
